

These pictures are taken from paintings done by Giuseppe Arcimboldo, an Italian painter who lived over 400 years ago. He was a famous painter in his lifetime and did paintings for the Austrian emperors - the first picture is actually a portrait of emperor Rudolph the second!

Arcimboldo also painted other fantastical heads made up of fruits, vegetables, plants, fish, books and all sorts of other objects.

- Can you spot the cherries? Colour them red!
- Can you see a pear? Colour it in yellow!
- Spot these other fruits and vegetables!
 - Peas in a pod
 - Corn on the cob
 - A big pumpkin
 - Bunch of grapes
- Make a list of the other fruits, vegetables, nuts and grains you can see!
 - 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.
 - 4.
 - 5.
 - 6.
 - 7.

How many can you spot?